Band Observes Anniversary

The Lincoln - Way High School band, under the direction of Robert C. Taylor and Randolph F. Kummer, will present its annual anniversary band concert Sunday afternoon, Jan. 28, at 3 o'clock, in the school auditorium.

The anniversary concerts are designed to honor all former Lincoln - Way band members, especially the members of the past 10 years.

The picture of the 1958-

59 band will appear on the front of the program Sunday, and three selections used in the state contest of 1959 will be played. The concert march, "Proud Heritage," Strauss' "Allerseelen," and the "First Suite in E-flat," by Holst, are the three selections played by the 1959 band.

In addition to these three numbers, the program Sunday will include the following selections:

"Colas Bruegnon Overture," by Kabelevsky; "An American Overture for Band," by Jenkins; "Tailgate Concerto," a Dixieland combo with band accompaniment, and several others including the Sousa march, "Semper Fidelis."

Also on the program will be a clarinet solo by Steve Barnes and a percussion quartet.

Tickets may be purchased from any band member or at the door.

A reception for former band members and their families will be held immediately following the concert in the all-purpose room.

With I-80 Open Traffic On U.S. 30 Flows Freely

In ceremonies dedicating I-80 and opening that transcontinental east-west expressway to traffic Gov. Kerner predicted that the highway would be an important factor in the industrial and economic growth of Illinois.

And with two proposed north and south expressways with connecting links with I-80 the southwest suburban region is expected make this one of the most productive centers in the midwest.

I-80 also is recognized as vital to the defense set up of the nation as it will permit the flow of materiel for the armed services between the east and west coasts. That it is important to the defense of the country is the principal reason that the 29-mile gap in Illinois--from Hazel Crest to Joliet--was finished ahead of schedule.

Just how much effect the highway will have on the industry and commerce of the area will, of course, be ascertained at some future date. But the effect that I-80 has on travel thru the region is apparent now, according to those who make a study of traffic.

As far as the people are concerned who travel thru the area daily, I-80 is a great boon. This does not mean they will be using I-80. There is no reason--other than curiosity--for anyone in New Lenox, Frankfort or Mokena to make use of the new highway to go to Joliet, it has been pointed out--and especially now.

U.S. 30, a narrow, wavy road, is still narrow and still wavy but the opening of I-80 has freed the Lincoln Highway of the stream of trucks that frequently held traffic to a crawl and added to the hazards of driving. The trucks are using I-80 and the people who use U.S. 30 are sending up cheers.

An occasional semi-trailer is seen on U.S. 30 but as a whole traffic on that highway is now moving freely and at a pace that cuts travel time substantially between, say, Frankfort and Joliet, or Frankfort and Chicago Heights, according to those who regularly use the road.

Joliet traffic authorities are pleased to note that the opening of I-80 has greatly reduced the number of the big, freight-car type of trucks in the streets.

something contagious in the past, because of the congestion created for the most part by the big trucks. Now they are expected to return to 30 and take advantage of the convenience of the route for local travel.

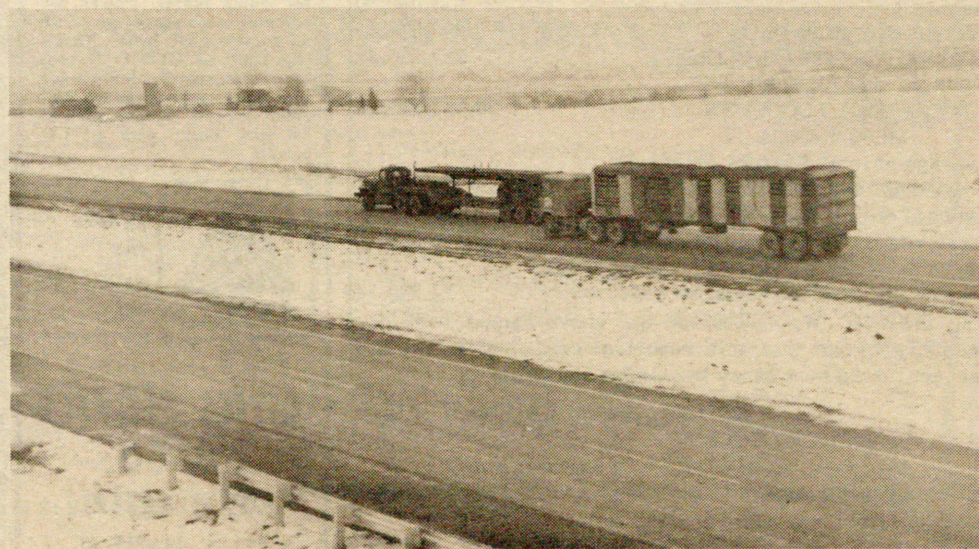

New Lenox residents, who for years have been complaining about mammoth vehicles parked along Lincoln Highway in the business sections. The trucks are always left with engines running, and in summer when windows are open the noise and odor from the running motors caused many persons to complain. Now, with I-80 claiming most of these trucks there should be fewer complaints, it was agreed.

The only interchanges in this area are at Harlem Av., on the western fringe of Tinley Park, and the fishhook junction west of New Lenox on U.S. 30. The state expects to let contracts for the interchange on U.S. 45 and the extension of U.S. 45 over the Rock Island tracks to rejoin the old route at 191st St.

With a cloverleaf at Rt. 45 and I-80 Orland Park will have easy access to the expressway and village officials and planners there have taken this into consideration in planning for the future.

Orland park is now in the midst of plans for extension of sewer and water mains to meet needs of what many believe is best described as the near future.

Geographers and planners all agree that the southwest suburbs are in for tremendous growth in population, industry and commerce and I-80 is expected to expedite the process.

I-80 PUT TO USE -- Trucks, trucks, trucks and more trucks are making use of the newly opened segment of I-80 the east - west transcontinental highway. This picture was made from the bridge that carries Wolf Rd. over I-80 at Mokena. Had the photographer waited a little longer he could have had more trucks in the picture but it was cold, windy, and a dark, dirty day with sleet fighting snow for aerial rights, so-o-o-o.

Calendar Trouble At Ukranian Cathedral

Last Friday, Jan. 19, the traditionalists of the Ukranian Catholic Church came to St. Nicholas Cathedral in Chicago for the blessing of water which is a part of the Feast of the Epiphany. On the Julian calendar which is followed by the traditionalists the Epiphany was Jan. 19. On the Gregorian calendar the Epiphany was Jan. 6.

After the 8 o'clock mass ended last Friday morning the churchgoers came to realize there would be no observance of the Feast of the Epiphany. The church was on the Gregorian calendar.

A group went to the rectory, knocked several times and when no one came to the door, the parishioners claim someone pushed it open and a number of them went inside. One of the parishioners, Roman Dalubynskyj, 60, armed with a camera attempted to take a picture inside the rectory. He was hit in the nose by one of the priests and his eyeglasses broken, he declared.

There were two priests present, the Rev. William Bilinsky and the Rev. Thomas Glynn. The latter is alleged to have been the one who hit the man with the camera, and in turn was hit by another parishioner. Father Bilinsky claimed that someone doused him with a pitcher of water and later pinned him on the rectory floor.

Parishioners had observed police squads in the area and within seconds the squads were on the scene. Four of the persons who had attended mass were arrested, Dziubynskyj, Dr. P. T. Demus, 51, of Mokena, Teofil Kawka, 63, and Suriwka Lubomyr, 42, both of Chicago.

The four are scheduled to appear in branch court at 1000 S. Racine, next Tuesday, Jan. 30.

Dr. Demus said this week that he was never told by the police that he was under arrest nor why he was arrested.

"There were several newsmen present," Dr. Demus said, "and when some members of the parish were unable to explain the situation I endeavored to assist. I talked to two or three different members of the press and then I suggested to one of the parishioners, like myself a physician, that we go over to a TV crew that was nearby."

"As I turned and started toward the TV group someone wrapped his arm around my neck -- from behind -- and was pressing on my throat. He was choking me and naturally I grabbed at his arm, trying to lift it and relieve the pressure on my throat. Then someone grabbed my arms from behind and pulled them down. The next thing I knew they had thrown me into a police wagon."

"At no time was I told I was under arrest. I knew that I was arrested tho, when they made me sign a paper when I posted a $100 bond."

The police report states that Dr. Demus has one charge of disorderly conduct against him and two of resisting arrest.

Dr. Demus explained that the dispute at the cathedral is of long standing.

The Ukranian Catholic Church became a part of the Roman Church 1596 but continued to follow the Julian calendar while the Roman Church followed the Gregorian calendar, which Pope Gregory adopted in 1582. Dr. Demus pointed out, and quoted papal bulls, encyclicals and other official church documents purporting to safeguard and perpetuate the Ukranian rite.

The traditionalists contend that the Most Rev. Jaroslav Gabro, bishop of the Ukranian Catholic Diocese of Chicago, was acting without authority when on Sept. 27, 1964, he decreed that beginning Oct. 1, the diocese would operate under the Gregorian calendar and on Dec. 6, of that year, declared "this change is irrevocable."

The bishop claims a majority of the 9,000 parishioners want to observe the Gregorian calendar while the traditionalist claim that the majority stand by the Julian calendar.

From the information available there has been no referendum on the subject.

There is no reason, Dr. Demus said, why both calendars could not be used with the Gregorian being followed by those who favor it and the Julian for those who would preserve the rites as they have always known them.

Father Bilinsky was quoted as saying that the two men who had encounters with the priests and the members of a committee which he claims incited the demonstration last Friday, had thereby excommunicated themselves. An excommunicated person is deprived of all the sacraments of the church, it was explained, except confession, until they are absolved.

"Fragrant Gold"

NATURE BULLETIN
FOREST PRESERVE
DISTRICT

The contents of those little spice cans on every kitchen shelf have romantic histories. The story of spices is a tale of camel caravans, perilous voyages thru unknown seas, the discovery of America, bloody wars, and the rise and fall of farflung empires. The Chinese traded with Malay for spices, 4000 years ago. In 408 A.D., when Rome was besieged by the Visigoth conqueror, Alaric, the Eternal City bought her freedom with gold, silver, silk, leather and 3000 pounds of pepper. In medieval times, the demand for spices to flavor tasteless foods and to disguise the taste and odor of half-rotten meats made them literally worth their weight in gold. The poor had only salt and a few herbs. A pound of pepper cost more than a sheep; a pound of cloves was worth more than a cow.

For untold centuries, spices were obtainable only from the Arabs who jealously guarded their caravan routes from the fabulous Far East. In the 11th Century, Venice dominated the Mediterranean and her merchants became wealthy by ferrying Crusaders to the Holy Land and returning with cargoes of spices. The quest for a sea passage to India and the Spice Islands, by Portugal and Spain, eventually led to discovery of a route around Africa, the discovery of America by Columbus, and Magellan's voyage rounding Cape Horn.

It is a remarkable fact that most of the true spices grow on tropical islands or near the sea. Pepper, the most important, is an ivy-like climbing vine native to Ceylon and the Malabar coast of India. Slender spikes of minute flowers are followed by green berries which later turn red like strands of coral beads. When dried, the green berries turn black and are sold as black pepper. The ripe red berries, freed from skins and pulp, make white pepper. It is now grown in many parts of Asia and in the West Indies.

Cinnamon is the thin yellowish-brown inner bark of the twigs of several kinds of small evergreen trees in the laurel family. It is highly fragrant and has a peculiarly sweet warm aromatic flavor. It is native to Ceylon and the Malabar coast but is now grown in Java, Egypt, Brazil and the West Indies. The Jews anointed their holy vessels with cinnamon-scented oils and it is used in incense burned in Catholic churches. The bark, buds and dried unripe fruit of the Cassia, a related tree in China, are used for a less aromatic flavoring.

Nutmeg and Mace are produced by an evergreen tree native to the Moluccas or Spice Islands but now grown extensively in Madagascar, Zanzibar and elsewhere. It may become 40 feet tall and its small yellow bell-shaped flowers are followed by peach-like fruit which split open to expose a kernel covered by a scarlet fibrous coat. Inside is the seed -- the nutmeg. The scarlet coat, dried, is mace.

Cloves come from another evergreen tree native to the Spice Islands. Its rose-pink flower buds, unopened, are picked and dried in the sun. Both Portugal and the Netherlands rose successively to be world powers thru their monopolies on clove, nutmeg, cinnamon and pepper -- a monopoly finally broken by the English and the French. Coriander, turmeric and ginger are ancient spices -- the latter two from underground root-stocks. Ginger, originally from southern Asia, has been grown in the volcanic soils of Jamaica since 1600 A.D. The only true spice native to the New World is the All spice Tree, so named because its unripe berry, dried, seemed to combine the flavors of pepper, nutmeg and clove. Solomon's bed was perfumed with cinnamon. Egyptian kings were embalmed with aromatic oils, and Connecticut Yankees sold wooden nutmegs.

Tinley To Celebrate Opening I-80 Feb. 11

With the tumult and the shouting dimmed, the Tinley Park Village Board, and the Tinley Park Jaycees are to have their own celebration Feb. 11, to mark the opening of the "Missing Link" section of the transcontinental east-west highway, I-80.

It being the wrong time of year to plan for any out of doors festivities the Tinley celebrants will confine their celebration to a dinner and speech making.

An invitation to attend was received by the Orland Park Village Board at its regular meeting Monday night and several members indicated they would attend. The tickets are $8 each but the holder is entitled to cocktails and a seven-course dinner. The affair is to be held at Silver Lake Country Club, 147th St. and 82nd Av., Orland.

Cocktails are to begin at 5 o'clock and dinner is to be served at 6:30. Mayor Kenneth Fulton, of Tinley, is in charge of arrangements.

Michael Howlett, state auditor, is to recount the history of I-80. Congressman Edward J. Derwinski, of the 4th District, will talk briefly and the principal speaker will be Richard B. Ogilvie, chairman of the Cook County board.

The Tinley Park Jaycees is one of the several organizations in the southwest suburbs that kept the pressure on for action on I-80. The gap between Hazel Crest and Joliet did serve to keep attention on the need of getting the project completed but even the best of engineer drawings will not carry traffic and there was a lot of work necessary to get the program finished.

Gov. Kerner and other officials of the state and federal governments, formally opened I-80 on Jan. 17 with ceremonies at Rockdale, Joliet, New Lenox and Kedzie Av.

Tinley Park is represented on I-80 with a big cloverleaf interchange at Harlem Av. but opening motorcade over the expressway did not pause there.

So Tinley is having its own celebration.

Of chief interest to Orland Park now is when the interchange with I-80 on U. S. 45 will be completed. This will give Orland speedy connection with I-80, which is expected to be beneficial to industrial development there.

The interchange is scheduled to be built this year and at the same time U. S. 45, which is now bent around and shoved under the Rock Island tracks, will be carried over the railroad and get back to its original route at 191st St.

Frankfort Files Suit To Have Old Barn Torn Down

Tiring of conversations which only led to other conversations the village of Frankfort has filed suit in the Will County Circuit Court seeking authority to dispose of an old barn.

The suit, filed by Village Attorney August Santoro, is against Emanuel Engelmann, a resident of Joliet, and the barn in question is located west of White St., principal entry into the village of Frankfort.

The complaint alleges the barn is "... dangerous and unsafe, and constitutes a hazard to the safety and well-being of the citizens of the village."

According to Attorney Santoro, Engelmann has "received many written requests from the village, asking him to either repair the building or have it razed."

"Since the owner has not responded to the formal notice sent him," Santoro said, "it was necessary to file suit."

The village began a campaign about two years ago to have all unsafe buildings either repaired by the owners or torn down. The Frankfort Grain Co., responded almost immediately to the village's request, Santoro said, and tore down the old storage facilities east of White St. and north of the New York Central tracts. Mrs. Esther Weitendorf also has complied with the request of the village and has had a garage torn down that was on her property, bordering White St.

A fourth building located at the west end of Elwood St. is also on the list of those believed to be unsafe. The property has changed hands since the village began its campaign and it is reported that the new owner has promised to make all repairs necessary as soon as weather permits.

A spokesman for the village said that it now plans to carry its campaign to include some other buildings and will begin contacting property owners shortly. It is the hope of village officials that eventually all of the dangerous, unsafe and unsightly buildings in the village will be either improved or razed.

Attorney Santoro said that he expects the suit against Engelmann will come up for hearing within the next two months. If the village is successful it will be given authority to hire someone to tear down the building. A judgment also would be entered against the property owner, covering all the costs incurred by the village, and a lien placed on the real estate in question.

The village can therefore obtain reimbursement for such expenses," Santoro said, "thru the normal means of enforcing judgments."

Richard Hobson, 49 Heart Attack Victim

Richard N. Hobson, 49, late of Crystal Lake, Ill., and formerly of New Lenox, died Monday, Jan. 8, in Presbyterian St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, following a heart attack.

Mr. Hobson was born Nov. 10, 1919 at Harvey, Ill., and spent part of his youth in New Lenox. He later moved to Crystal Lake and returned to New Lenox about three months ago.

He was employed as Senior Copy Writer for the Clinton E. Frank, Inc. Advertising Agency since 1965. Prior to that he was with Buchen Adv. Co. from 1944-65, where he rose to creative director.

Survivors include his wife, Norma; two sons, Peter of Denver and Christopher, stationed with the US Army in Germany; his father, Norman of Harvey; two brothers, John who is in Viet Nam and Thomas of Homewood, and an aunt, Mrs. Fred Scheel of New Lenox.

Services were held on Saturday, Jan. 13, at 1:00 p.m. at the Quenhammer Funeral Home, Crystal Lake, with Father Harper of the New Lenox Episcopal Church officiating.

Interment was in a local cemetery.

Let Haines Contract; Hold Up Oakview

Contract for the addition to Haines School has been let by the New Lenox grade school board.

zucco Construction Co. of Joliet. Its base bid was $351,000 and the firm specified that it would complete the job in 240 working days.

The addition includes 14 classrooms, a library, a small office area including two small rooms for counseling and special education personnel.

The board received four other bids on the job. Regan Construction Co., of Joliet, was next lowest with a bid of $357,700; Cabay Construction Co., also of Joliet, put in a bid of $380,612. The bid of Molaschi Construction Co., of Joliet, was $385,689. The top figure bid was $393,000 which was submitted by Chicago Heights Construction Co., of Chicago Heights.

Action on the contract for the Oakview School addition was held up by the board because the bids received all ran considerably higher than the estimate of the architectural firm of Alexander, Borkon, Westphal and DeYoung, of Joliet, which prepared the plans. The board authorized the architects to make a comprehensive analysis of all the bids received. The architects were to have reported back to the board last night, presumably with a recommendation as to what course to follow.

The board also had other business besides building projects. It hired Jeanne Gerriets, of New Lenox, to teach in the junior high school for a salary of $2,900 for the second semester. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois and will fill the vacancy created when the board granted a leave of absence to Janet Sons.

Supt. Arnold J. Tyler made a progress report to the board on the work that is being done by the Teachers Salary Committee.

Representatives of the New Lenox Insurance Association and Aetna Insurance Co. presented proposals for a hospital-surgical program for employees of the school district. A committee was appointed to make a further study of all the proposals presented to date and draft specifications for a plan to serve district employees.

Mokena

Form Committee To Study Sex Education In Schools

Telephone: 479-9321

The Mokena grade schools have undertaken a study of the teaching of family life and sex education. As the result of some interested parents and legislation passed by the last legislature a committee was formed. This committee is composed of the following persons: Mrs. William Ryan and Mrs. Durward, parents; William Mutsch, board member; Judy McClain and James Buffo, teachers; Myrtle Denfip, school nurse; Dave Burgess, Will County health educator; and Coleman Rogers, assistant supt.

The committee has been meeting since November. During this time they have attended a sex education conference sponsored by the Illinois Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, met to discuss the trends and issues, also invited the clergy from the community to speak on behalf of the churches.

The committee hopes to develop some definite guidelines for various grade levels for various materials that will be used to help implement the program.

The school community will be informed of the program after the committee gets the full approval from the Board of Education. This will probably be done through the Parent-Teacher organization or by grade level meetings.

Elaine Rechkemmer, librarian, has submitted a list of the new books through the American lending library. They are "Those Who Walk Away", "The Son of David Freed", "Mrs. Westery Changes Course" and "The Path unto the Unknown." Some of the new books for children in memory of Julia and Benjamin Rudy are, "Peter Pan", "Stuart Little", "A Hole Is To Dig," and "Modern Tales and Fables".

Interest in the development of Mokena is growing rapidly as evidenced by the reception accorded Clifford Allen of Commonwealth Edison Company who was the Chamber of Commerce speaker Monday, Jan. 15. Mr. Allen discussed his company's plans for the Mokena area and answered questions about electric service in the community.

In response to this mounting interest in the growth of Mokena and the surrounding area -- no doubt spurred by the opening of I-80 -- a community-wide meeting is being planned to discuss the problems and potentials of this growth. James Cooper, vice president of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce is in charge of the event which will be announced shortly.

As a part of the planning for this event, Cooper presented a letter from the Chamber of Commerce to the Village Board suggesting the formation of an Industrial Commission which could work to augment the development of the area.

Other action taken at the board meeting was the proposing of a vote of thanks to retiring post mistress Margaret O'Brien from the Chamber of Commerce with thanks for a job well done and best wishes for her retirement.

The Mokena women's club is sponsoring a "Farmer's Market" March 30, from 9-4 at the Willowcrest School Gym on Wolf Road.

The "Market" will feature an old fashioned country store, spring and summer bazaar, a senior citizen's craft table, and a white elephant booth. The historical and sesquicentennial committees will have a tour map available of historical landmarks in the Mokena area.

The club is seeking items to be displayed and sold on consignment for a small fee. Art work, all types of handicrafts by young and old and antiques are being sought for sale. Participants can set up their own booths, or in the case of limited items display them at the bazaar booth. Any individual, organization or business interested in participating or seeking more information is asked to call the chairman, Mrs. Thomas Deeb.

She would like to hear from anyone capable of demonstrating a vanishing talent, quilting, weaving, spinning, whittling etc.

It is hoped the "Farmer's Market" will promote interest in Illinois' Sesquicentennial celebration and make hidden talents and products available to the public.

$4.73 A CWT. Blend Price Set For Milk

A blend price of not less than $4.73 per hundred-weight will be paid dairy farmers in Pure Milk Association's Chicago market pool for December deliveries of Grade A milk to plants in the marketing area, Jesse Cook, supervisor of the pool, announced today.

The $4.73 price is for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content sold in Zone 1, which includes the marketing area of Cook and DuPage counties and adjoining townships in Lake, Kane and Will counties.

Combining to make December blend price are the Class I milk price of $5.40 per cwt. paid by dealers for bottled milk sold in the Chicago metropolitan area, slightly different prices for Class I milk sold through the pools to other areas, and the $4 price per cwt. for all milk sold in Class II for products other than fluid milk and cream.

The $5.40 Class I price paid by handlers has been in effect since September 4, Cook said. The December Class II price of $4 is the average price paid for manufacturing grade milk in Minnesota and Wisconsin in November.

The producers' return for that portion of their milk used for bottling at the December Class I price of $5.40 per cwt. was 23.2 cents per half gallon or approximately 11.6 cents per quart.

In addition to the $4.73 marketing area blend price, producers whose farms are located in Zones A. and B of the old Chicago Federal order will be paid nearby differentials of 9 and 7 cents per cwt., respectively, on their milk deliveries.

Utilization of milk in Class I in the PMA market pool in December was 54.3 percent.

The producer butterfat differential on December milk was 8.1 cents per cwt. for each one-tenth of 1 percent above or below 3.5 percent. The butterfat differential follows the average wholesale price for 92-score butter on the Chicago market.

Total milk produced for the PMA pool in December, a 31-day month, was 341,431,616 pounds, compared with 311,655,073 pounds in November, a 30-day period.

that conspicuous signs are displayed in such streets, indicating that the same is a school, hospital or court street.

(i) Bells, Sirens and Whistles. The sounding of any bell, siren or whistle, except to give notice of the time to begin or stop work or as a warning of fire or danger, or to give notice of the time to commence or quit school activities, or used for religious purposes.

SECTION 22: SAME - EXCEPTIONS. This ordinance shall not be deemed to apply to radios in private pleasure vehicles where operated in such a manner as not to be audible more than fifteen feet from such vehicle, nor to noise devices, bands or other musical devices used in any public parade which has been duly licensed or which is operated under Village permit.

SECTION 23: SEARCH OF PERSONS FOR GAMBLING APPARATUS, WEAPONS, ETC. SECTION 24: SEVERABILITY. Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this ordinance be declared invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining words, phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs or sections of this ordinance since the same would have been enacted by the Board of Trustees without the incorporation in this ordinance of any such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section.

SECTION 25: PENALTY; CONTINUING VIOLATIONS. Whenever in this ordinance any act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense, or whenever in this ordinance the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, the violation of any such provision of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or imprisonment for a term of six (6) months, either or both. Each day any violation of any provision of this ordinance shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

Tinley Girl Winner In Essay Contest

One of the three winners of the Sesquicentennial Essay contest conducted in the Catholic High Schools of Will County and sponsored by the Catholic Woman's League of Joliet, is Miss Lorrie Kane, 17, a student at Sacred Heart High School, Mokena, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kane, Tinley Park.

Lorrie is a member of the National Honor Society, Drama Club, Student Council Pres. at Sacred Heart, Editor of the Piper Newspaper, on the staff of Sandalwood yearbook, and an Illinois State Scholarship semi-finalist. She will study at the College of St. Francis, Joliet, and hopes to become a teacher of English.

Lorrie's essay entitled, "The Something Is Service" reads as follows:

"The United States can only be as strong as its fifty united states. Each state contributes its own products, culture, and people to the mass America. Each state is important.

The year 1968 will mark the 150th anniversary of the statehood of Illinois. Illinois --the Sucker state, the Prairie State, the Land of Lincoln--has offered America its farms, its highways, railroads, and airways, and its livestock-slaughtering and meat-packing facilities.

But the amount of corn harvested annually in DeKalb, Illinois and the number of airplanes refueled daily at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport are not what make Illinois a productive state. It is Illinois' people --the Midwest farmer, the Chicago butcher, the Rock Island engineer, conductor, and porter, the big city factory worker--who have given America something.

In Will County, Illinois, there is a group of women who have given America something. The something is service. Although their contribution has never merited mention in a history book or an encyclopedia, it has played an important part in the development of Will County and Joliet.

Now hailing from St. Francis Wood, Mokena, Illinois, the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart crossed the ocean, the country, and numerous corn fields, creeks, and pastures to be where they were needed.

Exiled from Seelbach, Germany during the Franco-Prussian war of 1876, Mother Anastasia Bischler, Superior General of the congregation, came to America. Accompanied by three fellow Franciscans, Mother Anastasia was warmly welcomed into the Indiana diocese of Fort Wayne. The sisters settled in Avilla, Indiana and with perseverance and hard work converted an old farmhouse into a convent and built a small chapel. They taught school and cared for the sick. For fifteen years, the farmhouse-convent was the motherhouse of the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Later due to the expansion of the community, the headquarters were transferred to Joliet on January 25, 1883.

Joliet was not a new mission for the sisters. Three years earlier they had come to the city not in search of a home, but in service. They came at the request of Reverend Gerard Becker, O.F.S., rector of St. John Church in Joliet to fight a typhoid epidemic. No sooner had the typhoid fever subsided when small pox began to spread. The sisters stayed on another year. In the service of God they served Joliet residents. In 1882 the sisters moved into a building donated by the people of the city in appreciation for the Franciscan's help. Equipped with twenty beds for patient care and a few rooms for a convent, the sisters began a hospital dedicated to St. Joseph. The Order was now officially established in Will County, Illinois. The next eighty years would see its expansion and growth.

Today the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart operate ten hospitals, sixteen elementary schools, a secondary school, a children's home, two homes for senior citizens, and an educational center. The institutions in the Joliet diocese include St. Joseph hospital, Joliet (1882), St. Joseph's grade school, Lockport (1892), St. Mary's grade school, Mokena (1949), Sacred Heart High School, Mokena (1954), and St. Mary's grade school, Park Forest (1960).

Service to Joliet has not waned over the years, but rather time has strengthened and expanded the Order's hold. The weather-beaten, time-worn St. Joseph Hospital of 1882 has been razed. On January 26, 1964, it was replaced by a new, completely equipped, modern St. Joseph Hospital.

Sacred Heart High School, once an eight-room wing of the motherhouse, is today a new two-story building serving over 280 girls from the Joliet and Chicago dioceses. The primary purpose of Sacred Heart High is to equip young girls for their dual roles of staunch Catholics and loyal American citizens.

The sisters continue to staff neighboring parochial grade schools. They also help conduct CCD classes for Joliet public school children.

Besides their work in the Joliet area the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart have missions in Southern Illinois, Indiana, and California. These include grade schools, high schools, homes for the aged, and homes for unwed mothers. In 1963 four sisters began a mission in Belem, South America.

In each state that the sisters have served they left a little of themselves. A little something. They are only 500 strong and they reach only a limited number of people. Their work being so circumscribed may appear insignificant, but it is important. Along with the Midwest farmer, the Chicago butcher, and the big city factory worker, the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart help make Illinois what it is--a living part of America."

New Minimum Wage Scale Begins Feb. 1

Business firms are reminded by the U.S. Dept. of Labor that the new minimum wage scale goes into effect Feb. 1.

Gerald J. Mitchell, director of the Chicago regional office of the U.S. Labor Dept. wage and hour and public contracts divisions, points out that the minimum for most covered workers advances to $1.60 an hour from $1.40. The remaining covered employees, including farm workers, will be entitled to $1.15 an hour instead of the present $1.

Workers who will be due the $1.60 minimum are those engaged in employment which was covered before the Fair Labor Standards Act was amended in 1966. Included are employees individually engaged in interstate commerce, or employed in certain large enterprises. They are also due time and one-half their regular rate after 40 hours a week.

The $1.15 minimum will apply to workers made subject to the Act by the 1966 amendments. Mitchell said these include employees of large hotels, motels and restaurants; workers in laundries and dry cleaning establishments; employees of hospitals and nursing homes, whether public or private; employees of schools and institutions of higher education, whether public or private, and more retail and service employees.

Mitchell emphasized that this is only a partial list of the kinds of workers covered by the 1966 amendments. He added that their minimum would increase by 15 cents every year until $1.60 an hour is reached on Feb. 1, 1971.

Also beginning Feb. 1, 1968, workers covered by the 1966 amendments will be due time and one-half after 42 hours a week instead of the present 44 hours. They become subject to the 40-hour week on Feb. 1, 1969.

However, some covered workers are exempt from the pay provisions, Mitchell noted. For example, covered hotel, motel and restaurant employees are exempt from overtime. Employees of a retail or service enterprise are exempt from both the minimum wage and overtime provisions if the enterprise grosses less than $500,000 a year.

Similarly exempt are employees of an individual retail or service establishment that grosses less than $250,000 yearly, even though it may be part of a covered enterprise grossing more than $500,000 yearly. The $500,000 test will be reduced to $250,000 on Feb. 1, 1969.

Mitchell said that questions about the Fair Labor Standards Act would be answered at the South Side office of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, located at 8108 S. Western Av., Chicago. The telephone number is 436-5355.

Teach Kennedy School Pupils How To Swim At Sandburg Pool

Last night (Jan. 24,) from 8-9 p.m., the Sandburg Guard held an open house in the pool area. The public is invited to attend and watch the Guards teach the boys from Joseph P. Kennedy School. The guards are expert swimmers.

The teaching of the Kennedy children is one of Guard's main projects and assets. The last Wednesday of every month the boys come for lessons. There is a one-to-one ratio of Guard student. All Guards will be present for the event either to teach or explain teaching methods.

There are approximately 30 boys who come from their Boy Scout group under the direction of Fred Baier. The boys are approximately 10 to 18 years of age.

Senior Guard, Val Geister, heading a committee for the event said, "we hope that all will come to see the progress and fun the boys have." Other than all learning to swim, water games are played.

Coach Alan Gilberg, Guard's sponsor, has also invited the faculty of District 230 and guard organizations from Homewood-Flossmoor, Hinsdale Central, Hinsdale South, Riverside - Brookfield, Bremen, Tinley Park, Oak Lawn, Reavis, and Evergreen Park.

Farmers Join Meat Promotion Event

Farmers from all parts of the state will be in Chicago Feb. 12 and 13 to see the processing and distribution steps in the farm-to-table journey of Illinois produced foods.

About 150 farm men and women from more than 90 Illinois counties are expected to take part in the annual Chicago Meat Promotion event sponsored by the Illinois Agricultural Association, the state-wide Farm Bureau, at the Midland Hotel.

Dr. John P. Murphy, vice president in charge of research and development for Swift and Company, will be featured speaker. Murphy will discuss new merchandising techniques for meat and the impact of food substitutes on the food industry.

"The annual meat promotion event is designed to give Farm Bureau and food industry leaders an opportunity to exchange information," said Jeffrey Gain of the IAA marketing department. "Through programs of this type, producers and food handlers have a better understanding of the problems and complexities of each others business operations."

The marketing promotion event opens with an orientation meeting at 8 p.m. on

Visits Ad Agency

Meeting the makers of the Hamms' beer bear was listed as one of the main highlights of a Dec. 21 field trip by Carl Sandburg High School journalism students. The educational tour took 38 students to the Campbell-Mithun advertising agency in the morning, and to the Chicago Tribune in the afternoon.

The tours culminated a unit on advertising, journalism instructor James Matthews said. It also served to introduce a second semester unit which will extensively investigate mass media, including large city daily newspapers.

Advertising copywriters and art directors explained their work to the high schoolers. Ad executive Ralph Campbell prefaced 10 minutes of colored TV commercials produced by the firm with some comments on the advertising industry. It is now a $16 billion a year business, he said, based on the cost of time and space bought by the 6000 U.S. agencies. Campbell-Mithun is the sixth largest in the midwest and the 25th largest in the country, billing $75 million yearly.

It was the roar of the presses, huge, fast, and sounding like locomotives, that impressed the students during the afternoon tour of the Chicago Tribune. The class followed a news story from the news room which is the center of activity for some 500 total editorial employees, through the composing rooms, stereotyping, printing, and mailing rooms.

Journalism students and school newspaper editors touring the Chicago corporations were Gail Buck, Linda Cole, Robert Cross, Pete Cech, Dave Goble, Carolyn Gremaud, Fred Jones, Robert Knittle, Marty Lovgren, Karen Lovitt, Dan Morgan, James Perry, Silvia Richardson, Marilynne Skinner, Marianna Stevens, Paul Erlandson, Dave Roth, Larry Bernard, Cathy Byrne, and Donna Coy.

Also Dawn Doctor, Paula Ferrin, Hazel Glissen, Darlene Kluck, Jean Lasch, Betty Marosek, Joe Monstwill, Herb Nesmith, Pat Osborne, Charles Phillips, Julie Urban, Raynella Zabelski, Lisa Toman, Wendy Mueller, Chris West, Shirley Dwyer, Sidney Davis, and Steve Daley.

Let the weak say, I am strong.—(Joel 3:10)
Feelings of weakness are overcome as we hold to the thought that we are strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. To affirm our strength in the Lord is to call on reinforcements, on reserves of power mighty within us. Energy, strength, power are not depleted through use but are built up and increased. We stir up the God-power within us; we call on and use the innate energy and strength with which we are endowed.

CRIME CURBS—"In spite of the general interest in the problem of organized crime and attempts to do something about it, the Administration continues to take a position adamantly opposing wire-tapping and electronic eavesdropping devices. It's true I think that we need some restrictions in this area, and that it should be done only under court order, but at the same time we should recognize that this is a vital part of doing something about organized crime," states Rep. Robert Taft, Jr., (R-Ohio).

New Townhouses Now Open

The big news at Ramlin Rose South Apartments -- on Illinois 83, just south of 91st Street, in south Hinsdale -- currently centers on new three-level chalet apartments located toward the western section of this growing apartment community.

Ramlin Rose South sales director, Bill Stegmeyer, notes that, "These chalet apartments definitely have an Old World appeal. And people are further attracted by the arrangement of these townhouses around a semi-private U-shaped commons."

The front entry of each townhouse has a large, walk-in closet, with shelving on two sides. To one side, past the stairs to the upper level, is the spacious living room, 18 feet long and nearly 14 feet wide. At one end is a wide view window; at the other, the separate, semi-open dining room -- about 12 feet by 11 feet in size.

RAMLIN ROSE SOUTH TOWNHOUSES -- A special attraction of the new Ramlin Rose South garden apartments, now open on Illinois 83 just south of 91st St., is the group of three-level townhouse apartments. As shown here, the mansard roof adds distinction to the exterior lines. These apartments will overlook an attractive four-acre lake, when completed.

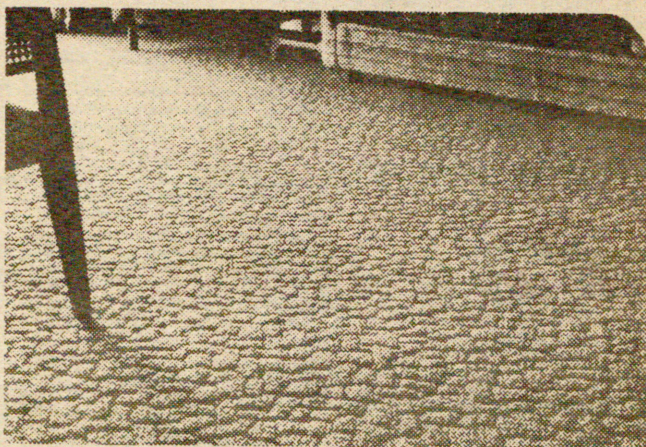

A special utility closet and powder room are located off an inside corner of the kitchen, at the head of the stairs to the lower level.

Here are only 8 of the many better-living reasons why your garden or town house apartment (1, 2, or 3 bedrooms) at Ramlin Rose South will be the new, refreshing, happiest way to live. And there are many, many other features and conveniences of this beautiful planned community that will add to your fullest enjoyment of living. The rooms are honestly spacious; a TV antenna jack has been installed; your apartment has been wired for additional telephone outlets; and there's more cabinet space in the kitchen than you ever dreamed of. There's a suspended light fixture in front of a paneled wall. Outside, grassy malls, sidewalks, broad streets, and lots of parking space. Soon, you will have a community recreation center, 2 swimming pools, tennis courts, and a private lake. Later, a shopping center. Transportation, schools, churches and shopping facilities are excellent.

It's easy to get here. Just take the Stevenson Expressway (I-55) to Route 83, then south one mile. We are in the Clarendon Hills-Westmont Area. Models are open daily from 10 until 7. Or telephone: 323-3918.
